The river.

Once there, they went to the Sacramento River, pulled their raft in, and drew their knifes in.

Not surprisingly, there were different versions of the fight. However, the following key facts are:

According to an article published on January 2nd, 2023, both groups had been drinking throughout the evening. The fight occurred sometime after 8:30 pm, and lasted between 30 and 45 seconds.

The tennis player, who is said to have been drinking with the campground patrons, was quoted as saying, "I didn't start it, but I didn't stop it either." The other group refused to provide details about the incident.

According to the Sacramento River Parks Department, "Sometimes you can't avoid these situations, but it's important to handle them responsibly and peacefully."
